

BOOKS ON DEATH OF A PET

TITLE	AUTHOR	READER/LISTENER AUDIENCE
THE ACCIDENT* When his dog, Bodger, is hit by a car and killed, Christopher must overcome his sense of guilt.	Carol Carrick	(Grades 2-5)
BIMMI FINDS A CAT An 8-year old Creole boy grieves for his beloved cat but when another lost cat leads him to a new friend, he begins to heal.	Elisabeth Jane Stewart	(Grades 1-4)
FOR EVERY DOG AN ANGEL A perfect way to remember that timeless connection to your special four-legged friend.	Christine Davis	(Grades pre-2)
GOODBYE MOUSIE* A young boy learns that his pet mouse has died and has many feelings after he finds out.	Jan Ormerod	(Grades pre-1)
GRUNT Grunt is a beloved family dog whose age and illness lead the family to decide to put him to sleep.	Suzanne Schlossberg	(Grades k-4)
I'LL ALWAYS LOVE YOU* A gentle story about how a young boy and his family grieve when their dog, Elfie, does not wake up one morning.	Hans Wilhelm	(Grades pre-3)
NOT JUST A FISH Puffer the fish is a very loved pet. One day puffer became sick and didn't swim anymore. The family has a creative way of saying goodbye.	Kathleen Maresh Hemery	(Grades k-3)
OCHO LOVED FLOWERA* This is a story about Ocho the cat, and how Ocho's family takes care of him when he gets sick, and how they grieve when he dies.	Anne Fontaine	(Grades pre-4)
REMEMBER RAFFERTY* This book tells the story of Rafferty, a dog who is ill and put to sleep. Includes suggestions for parents on how to handle questions and issues. The last section is a scrapbook for children to record memories of their pet.	Joy Johnson	(Grades pre-4)
THE TENTH GOOD THING ABOUT BARNEY* Judith Viorst A young boy feels very sad when his cat, Barney, dies. He thinks of 10 good things about Barney to help him remember his special pet.		(Grades k-3)
WHEN YOUR PET DIES A wonderful story for children and adults alike who have suffered the death of a pet.	Dian Pomerance PhD	(Grades pre-3)

*Indicates item is available in the Fernside Resource Center. Materials may be borrowed. Please call for information.